

END OF JANUARY SEMESTER 2012 EXAM

DEPARTMENT: PSYCHOLOGY, COUNSELING & CHILD DEVELOPMENT

EXAM: HUMAN SEXUALITY CODE: PSY 415A

DURATION: 2 HRS

Instructions

Question one is compulsory.

Answer any other two questions.

1. a) Explain five broad categories of sexual dysfunctions (10 marks)
b) Discuss the impact of any five social cultural factors on human sexuality (10 marks)
2. a) Explain why the male gonads are located outside the body (2 marks)
b) Identify four internal male sexual organs and explain the function of each of these organs (8 marks)
c) Describe the measures university students should take to maintain a hygienic and healthy body (10 marks)
3. a) Explain six key concepts that have changed over time as far as the Traditional African views to human sexuality are concerned. (12mks)
b) Discuss the gender role socialization process at the birth and infancy stage (8 marks)
4. "I pronounce you husband and wife until death do you part"
The above are common words said to couples in churches when they are getting married. Unfortunately many couples desert their marriages long before they die.
a) Discuss the reasons why many marriages break up these days (10mks)
b) Examine lessons learnt from the Bible about marriage and how we can use these lessons to enrich marriages (10mks)
5. a) Jacky is a first year university student and has just discovered she is pregnant. She fears that her parents will be very disappointed in her. She wants to abort.
 - i. Describe to Jacky the psychological and health consequences of abortion (10 marks)
 - ii. Explain the role the government should play in reducing irresponsible sexual behavior among the youth (10 marks)